THIS IS OUR STORY...

Foreword

This 1955 edition of THE CHIPS is offered to the graduating seniors with the hope that it will remain a cherished reminder of happy memories to them long after the sharp scythe of Father Time has severed these scenes from their minds.

DEDICATION

We, the members of the Publications class, respectfully dedicate THE 1955 CHIPS to Mr. Blanke, former adviser to THE CHIPS staffs, who, together with Dr. Richards, was largely responsible for publishing the First Annual Yearbook of Community High School in 1936.

Mr. Blanke left Community High School at the end of that first year, but he returned in January, 1946, and reassumed the work of publishing the yearbook, continuing in this capacity through 1954. Throughout these years he has been an English teacher and a loyal friend to the members of our student body.

It is in the spirit of gratitude for his helpful instruction, his purposeful direction of former yearbook staffs, and his devoted service to Community High School that we proudly and affectionately dedicate THE 1955 CHIPS to Mr. Clyde Wilbur Blanke.

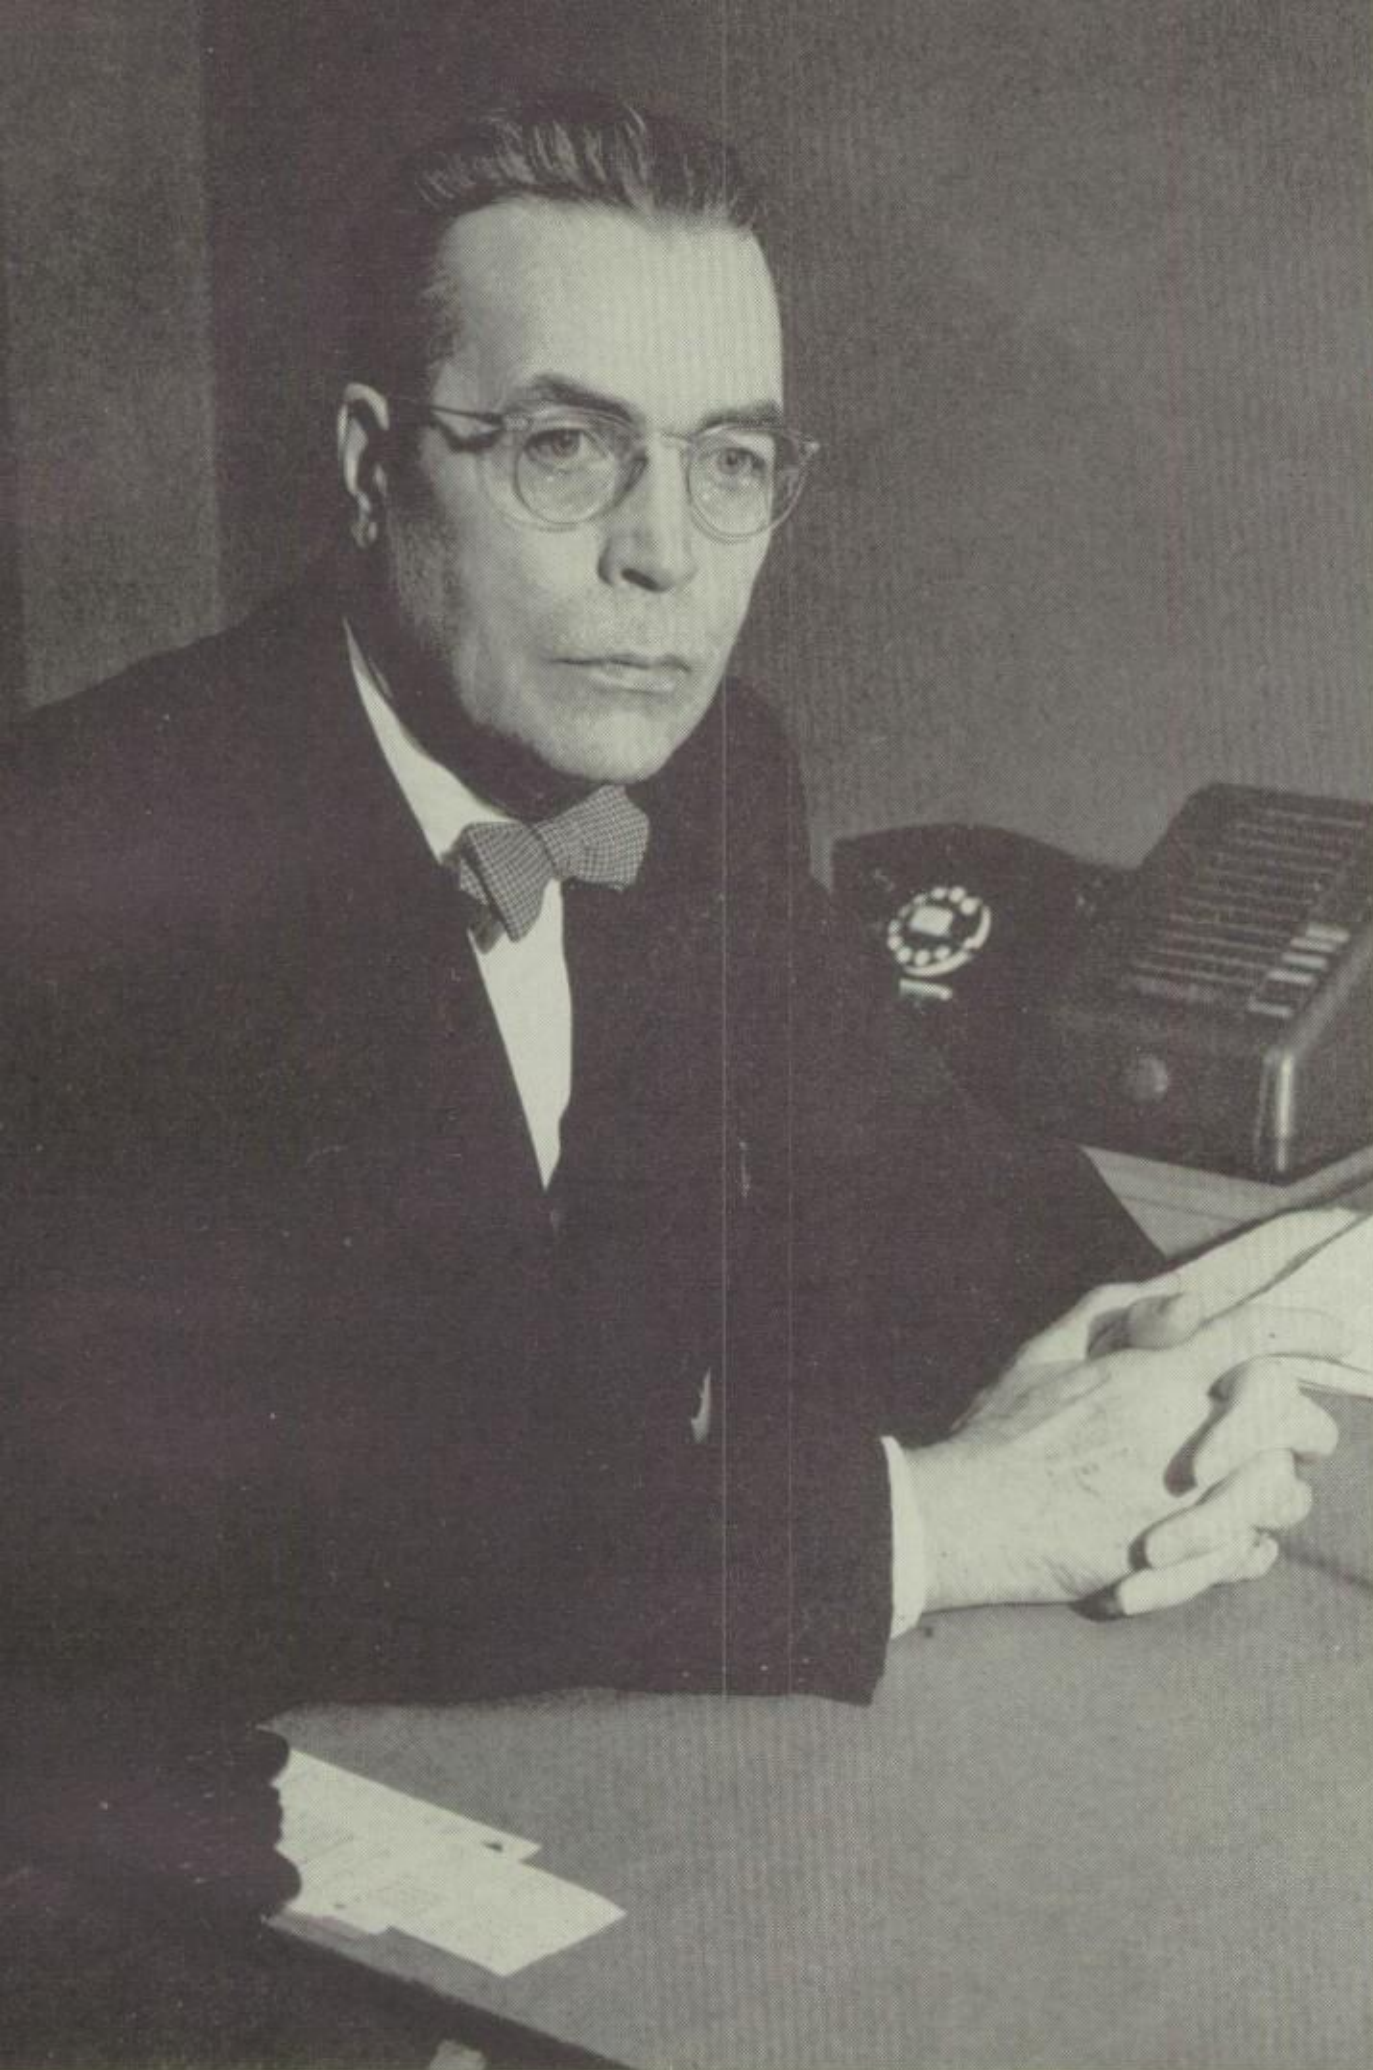

BOARD OF EDUCATION

As we review our four years at Community High School, we begin to realize the debt we owe to the Board of Education, whose members have given so freely of themselves that we might have one of the finest schools in the land.

To each and every one we wish to say, "Thanks!"

Left to right around table, Dr. Harold L. Richards, Superintendent; Elbert T. Smith, Member; Dr. Kenneth J. Smith, Member; Franklin W. Klein, Attorney; Henry L. Duff, President; Leo M. Lawrence, Member; Ray

Every organization needs a steady hand to guide it. This needed guidance is provided at Community High School by our beloved and respected Superintendent, Dr. Harold L. Richards, whom we believe to be one of the foremost educational leaders of our day. Our seniors will be graduated this June with the knowledge that Dr. Richards has done his best to prepare them for the years ahead.

ACTIVITIES

LIBRARY AIDES

The library aides serve the students by checking books in and out at the circulation desk; helping keep the book shelves, magazine racks, and vertical files in order; processing new books; and giving assistance wherever needed.

The main event of the year is the "Pin" party at which the aides are pinned according to the number of years of service; first year, bronze pin; second year, silver pin; third year, gold pin; fourth year, key-style gold pin with torch guard.

In order to serve as a library aide a student must be willing to devote one full period per day to the work, should be an average or above-average student, and have a good attendance record.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Stardust, a play by Walter Kerr, was presented by the Senior Class in the Campus gymnasium on November 18 and 19, 1954.

The story of Stardust is the complicated situation that develops when a visiting professional actress, Prudence Mason (Carol Rice), comes to take part in a production at the Academy of Dramatics and Allied Arts, headed by Mr. Bach (Arthur Haase). Mr. Bach has very extreme ideas upon acting your part by "living it" and has turned his students, who are really normal young people, into neurotically stage-conscious individuals. Prudence's problem is further complicated by the fact that she is being urged into marriage by Arthur Scott (Jim Hackett), a businessman who does not appreciate her love for the stage. When Prudence realizes the situation she has gotten herself into, she calls upon her wisecracking friend, Claire Carter (Judy Dvorovy).

A parallel love story involves Janet, a student (Janet Pfeiffer), and Phil, the young stage designer (Ralph Thompson), who is not at all impressed by the amateur theatricals he sees Janet involved in. Jerry, the Hollywood talent scout (Joe DuCharme), arrives to talk Prudence into going to Hollywood. The dean of women (Carol Maier) threatens to call off the play. Through it all, Bach remains the odd and hilariously funny dedicated leader.

As usual with comedies, all ends happily with Prudence completing the play to leave for Hollywood and her true love, a Hollywood producer.

DIVERSIFIED OCCUPATIONS PROGRAM

The Diversified Occupations program at Community High School is in its sixth year. Thirty students are working in the program in seventeen different occupations and are employed by twenty-eight business establishments in the City of Blue Island and neighboring communities. Lloyd J. Lowe is the faculty co-ordinator.

Community High School is one of forty schools in the State of Illinois offering students the opportunity to work in their chosen trades while still in school. The program operates on a split-day basis by which the student spends his mornings in school and his afternoons in various places of employment receiving on-the-job training.

Over 150 students have availed themselves of this vocational opportunity during the past five years at Community High School. The program is sponsored by the Illinois State Board of Vocational Education and is open to juniors and seniors who are sixteen years of age or over.

DIVERSIFIED OCCUPATIONS CLUB

The D. O. Club is affiliated with the Illinois Industrial Education Club. Activities of the club include field trips, recreational and social evenings, and the D. O. banquet which the students give for their employers each year. The officers of the club are Constant Wysocki, president; Carl Bjelke, vice-president; Kenneth Triphan, secretary; James Korzenko, treasurer; and Valentine Weber, reporter. Lloyd J. Lowe is the faculty sponsor.

Jim Manzo block-sands a car at Jack Thompson Oldsmobile under the direction of Bob Mailhoit, manager of the auto body and fender repair service. Jim is completing his second year as an auto body and fender repairman on D. O.

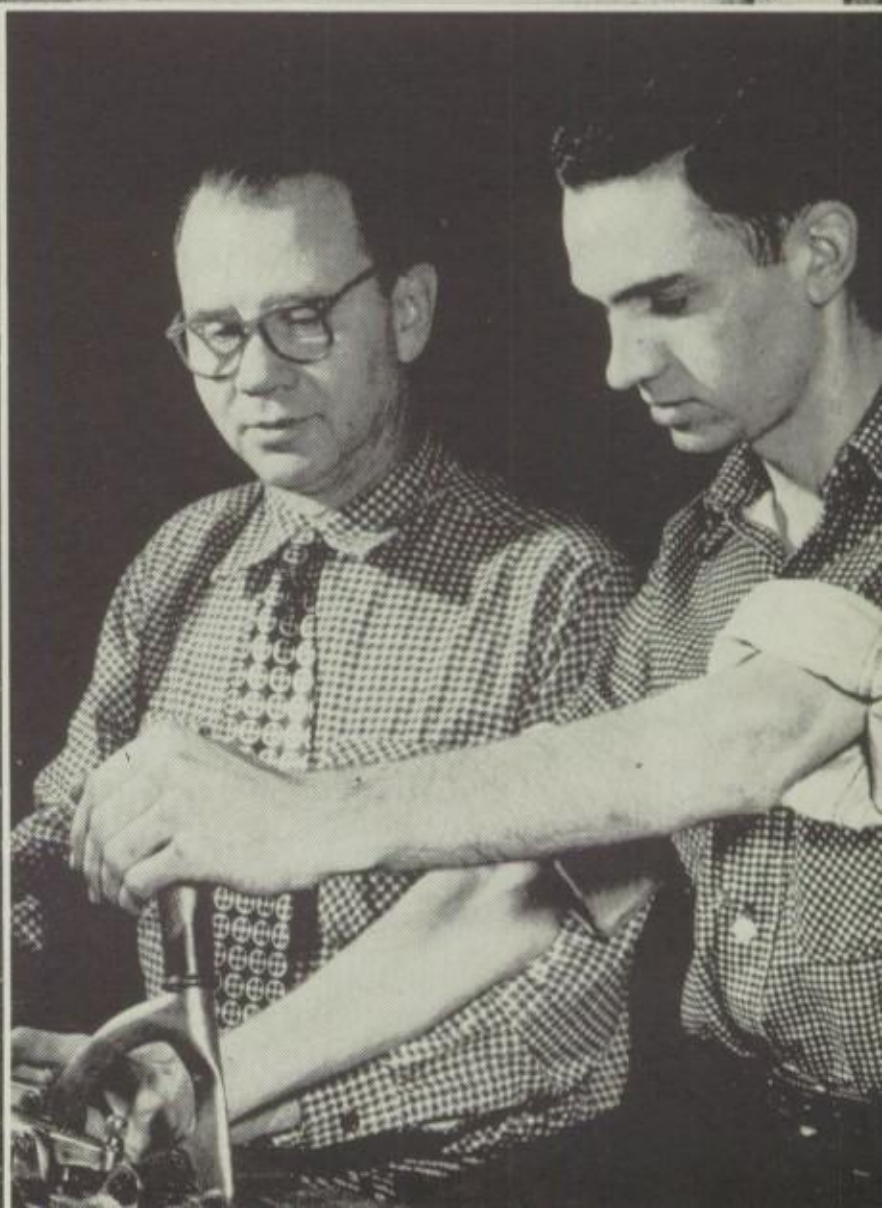

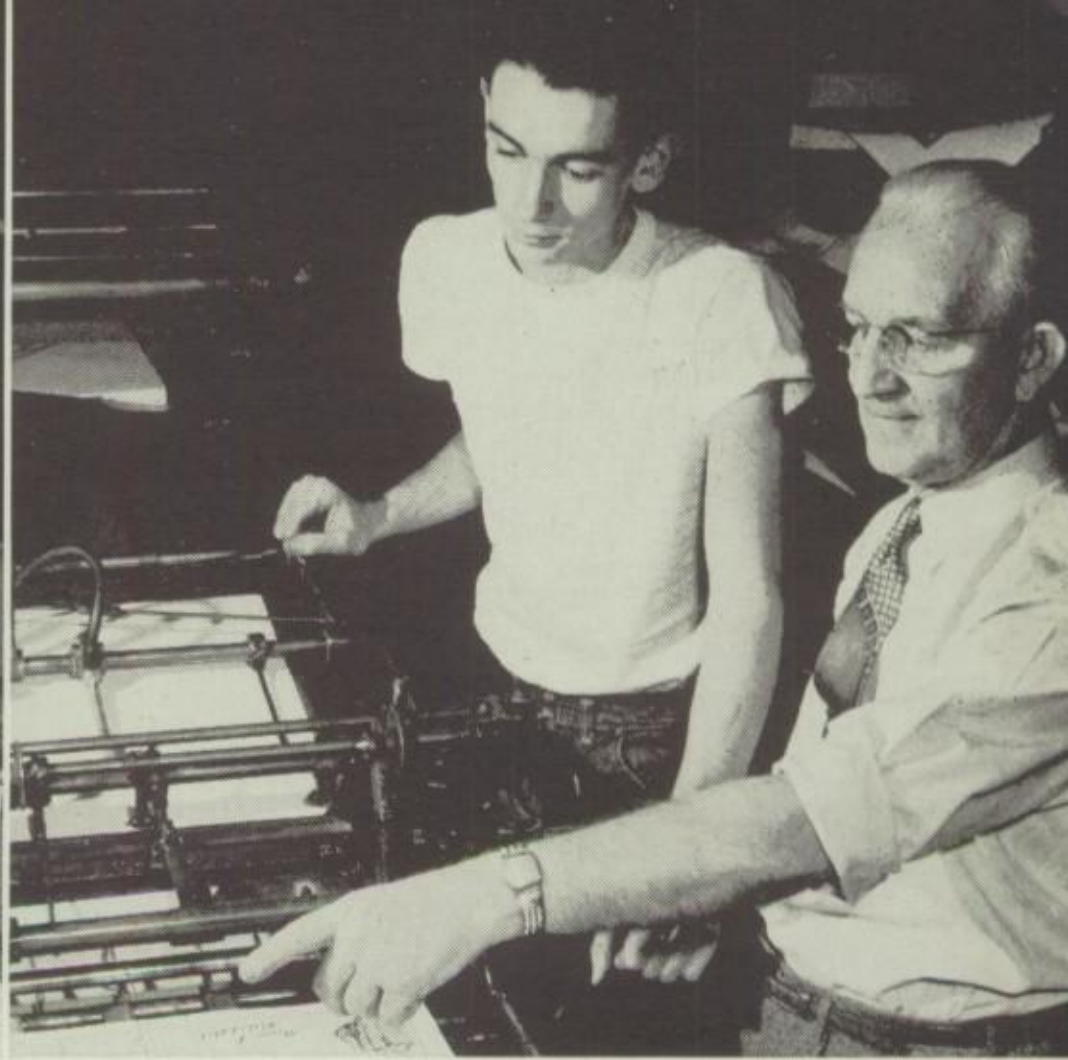

Advisory Committee: Dr. Harold L. Richards, Superintendent, Community High School; Roger Bronson, E. B. Bronson & Company; Thomas Easton, Public Service Co. of Northern Illinois; William Gerdes, Contractor; John Crawford, Great Lakes Refinery; Lloyd J. Lowe, Co-ordinator.

Val Weber, in his second year as a printer on the D. O. program, is casting a line on the Ludlow machine. Employer Ernest A. Vernon is waiting to see another job well done.

Constant Wysocki, employed at the Clark Oil and Refining Corp. as a laboratory technician, weighs a catalyst sample under the supervision of the chief chemist, Robert Bruggink.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Ronald Rutz is turning a doll rod to be used for support of shelf for end table on the lathe under the supervision of Weldon Gross in Wood I shop.

LANGUAGE

SCIENCE

MATHEMATICS

OPEN HOUSE

Open House was held in conjunction with the final meeting of the Parent-Faculty Association on May 10, 1954. Shown here are representative views of classrooms at that time.

GIRLS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Elsie Pierre seems to be "up in the air" as she works on the trampoline. Don't worry, Elsie; everything that goes up must come down.

CLUBS

DECAPS is the name of the art club. As shown in the picture, it was chosen by using the first letter in various words used in art work.

Activities of the Decaps Club include field trips, discussions, films on art, and the like. This year the club visited Kling's Art Studio, held discussions on the lives of famous artists, went to see "Wonderful Town," played art charades, enjoyed films on art subjects, and helped the Christmas spirit along by providing decorations for classroom doors and special holiday displays.

BIOLOGY CLUB

The Biology Club is designed to offer a science students an opportunity to explore further our biological world. Through project work, listening to guest speakers who are skilled in some phase of biology, and the like, the club members become better acquainted with occupational and hobby possibilities associated with this particular science.

Officers of the club are Bob Reuss, president; Lynn Hill, vice-president; Kay Collins, secretary-treasurer. Gordon G. Hill is the faculty sponsor.

GERMAN CLUB

The German Club meets the first Wednesday of the month. As it is a social club, the first aim is to have fun. This aim is achieved by playing games (in German, usually), giving short skits, singing typical German songs, and occasionally eating German food. Sometimes the members of the club learn more about the customs and culture of the German people through reports by members or recent visitors to Germany. The Christmas party and the spring picnic are two special events for the club.

G. A. C. (OLD MAIN)

The Girls' Athletic Club at Old Main is an organization established to promote interest in girls' sports. Activities included in G. A. C. are volleyball, basketball, and softball.

LATIN CLUB

Membership in the Latin Club is open to all Latin II students and to Latin I students who have made an average of 91 or better during the first semester. The club enjoys a Christmas party and a spring picnic in conjunction with the other language clubs. The high point of the year is the Roman banquet at which all the old members assume the roles of historic Roman characters and the incoming members function as their slaves.

LIBRARY CLUB

The purpose of the Library Club is to stimulate an interest in many types of books. Every effort is made to bring to the attention of each and every student that the library is an interesting, as well as educational, institution.

P. A. P. S. CLUB

The activities of the P. A. P. S. (Public Address Phono Systems) Club concern themselves with the operation of the school public-address systems whenever they are needed for functions held here at school. They include not only school functions but also other functions held by outside organizations on the school premises. These boys also do the announcing at the school athletic events, plan records to be used for special events, record some events on tape, and do innumerable other tasks in connection with the operation of the public-address systems.

T. A. G. CLUB

The T. A. G. (Trigonometry-Algebra-Geometry) Club was organized to promote recreational mathematics and to study certain topics for which there is insufficient time in class. The only social function is the spring picnic.

SPANISH CLUB

G. A. C. (CAMPUS)

The Girls' Athletic Club is open to all girls in the Campus Building. To earn a letter a girl must participate in at least three sports, which include speedball, basketball, volleyball, softball, bowling, and track. Any girl may participate in any given sport season without being an active member of G. A. C. Dorothy M. Cruise is the faculty sponsor.

PRO CLUBS

OLD MAIN FRESHMAN

FRENCH CLUB

Members of ENTRE NOUS, the French Club, enjoyed a year of varied activities. A Parisian sidewalk cafe scene, a French style show, French games and songs, and a travelogue by Mr. Porter of his experiences in France provided interesting entertainment at the monthly meetings. Highlights of the club's activities were the annual Christmas party and spring picnic with the other language clubs.

The officers of ENTRE NOUS this year were Ronda Cheffer, president; Shirley Bauer, vice-president; Richard Waits, secretary; and Janet Martino, treasurer. Opal A. Peterson is the faculty sponsor.

VARSITY ATHLETIC CLUB

Membership in the Varsity Athletic Club is open to any boy who has won at least one varsity letter. Members of the club operate the concessions and sell refreshments to patrons at home athletic events. Profits from this venture are used to purchase athletic supplies and equipment.

STENO CLUB

The Steno Club holds its meetings on the fourth Wednesday. Membership is restricted to second-year shorthand students, all of whom hope to become secretaries after graduation from high school. Activities of the club are varied and include social times, days on correct office procedures, and listening to talks by businessmen on pertinent topics such as how to get and hold a position. Each meeting is planned by a different committee so that each member may take an active part in club affairs. Janet McQuistan, chairman of the business-education department, is the faculty sponsor. Left row, front to rear, June Glavan, Arlene Gaydos, Barbara Burmeister, Sylvia McKimmey, Nancy Teason, Mary McCollom; Roberta Hanko, vice-president; Gwynne Cole, Wilma Kulhan, Dolores Marchese, Catherine McArthur, Barbara Kowalczyk; right row, front to rear, Carol Breault, Phyllis Bullens, Rae Amato, Darlene Huebner; Barbara Koehler, secretary; Pauline Bochmann, Darlyne Greia, Marian Guzak, Emma Jones, Elaine Thyne; Jacqueline Kissinger, president; Joan Habenicht, treasurer.

SPEECH CLUB

STUDENT COUNCIL

The broad functions of the student council are to encourage student participation in school activities, to encourage co-operation between students and faculty, and to investigate and to make recommendations to the superintendent on matters of school welfare as seen from the point of view of the student. The council also sponsors homecoming, five social evenings each year, a spring dance, and pep rallies. It is in charge of dismissing school assemblies. It also sells booster pins and checks coats for school activities.

SPORTS — FOOTBALL — VARSITY

Fifty football hopefuls answered the call for football practice on August 29. With three weeks of hard practice under their belts, the Cardinals journeyed to West Aurora on September 17 to do battle with a member of the Big Eight Conference and emerged with a 27 to 13 victory. The Cardinals were led to victory by some very fine running of Jesse Lucious.

The following week the home season was opened and the boys lost a very tough game to a good Morgan Park team by the score of 12 to 6. The next game was played on Parents' Night, when Leyden opened the Cardinals' conference season and went home on the short end of a 35 to 7 score. All boys suited for the game participated. On Saturday, October 8, the Blue Island Cards made a trip to North Chicago, where it made their record stand—3 wins and 1 loss—by defeating a very tough North Chicago team by a score of 21 to 20.

Then the rains came and we had five feet of water covering the stadium for a week. With two nights of practice and the third quarterback of the season in command, the Big Red journeyed to Fractional, where they lost a very disheartening game 7 to 6. The following week, after out-playing Thornton practically the entire game, they again were on the short end of a 7 to 6 score. On October 29 the Cardinals played at Bloom in weather more suitable for ice skating than football and after 48 minutes of hard playing the scoreboard read B. I. 6 and Bloom 6. The last game of the season was the Homecoming game on November 5 with Argo, who had lost only one game all year and that to Thornton 14 to 12, but the boys were determined to win this one and did so by blanking Argo for the first time all year by the score of 14 to 0.

The season's record reads 4 wins, 3 losses and 1 tie—a good season considering that Willie May was the only experienced lineman returning to start the season, that the total of the three losses was by only 8 points, and that as many as four different quarterbacks had to be used during the season as Bob Bronson, Jack Bronson, and Ronald Helberg all came up with injuries which sidelined them for much of the season.

Willie May, Jesse Lucious, Ronald Filip and Bill Moore were placed on the All-Star Team of the South Suburban Conference.

Willie May received the most-valuable-player award and Ronald Helberg was chosen honorary captain for the year.

The coaches really appreciate the fine spirit and cooperation of the entire varsity squad of forty-seven boys that completed the season.

Proof of this improvement was demonstrated when the boys defeated two of their earlier conquerors to win the first sophomore invitational tournament at Calumet City.

TENNIS 1954 SEASON

The 1954 tennis teams enjoyed another fine year by emerging as district champions at Joliet for the eighth consecutive year and placing sixth in the state tournament. Bob Breckenridge was district singles champion, Bob Bronson and Danny Steele were district doubles champions, and Chuck Lawrence and Ronnie Snyder were runners-up in the district doubles competition.

The BI Cardinals have been varsity champions in the South Suburban Conference since 1940. Bob Breckenridge won the conference varsity singles championship, with Ronnie Miller as runner-up. Bob Bronson and Danny Steele won the conference varsity doubles championship, with Chuck Lawrence and Ronnie Snyder as runners-up.

The overall season's record for varsity, junior varsity, and freshman-sophomore squads in dual meets was 19 wins and 11 losses against such teams as Oak Park and Danville, state co-champions; La Grange, champions of the West Suburban Conference; York of Elmhurst, Riverside-Brookfield; Fenger, Chicago city champions; Joliet, Thornton of Harvey, Leyden, Lockport, Kankakee, and Morgan Park Military Academy.

Community High enjoyed its most successful track season in recent years as the varsity squad was undefeated both in dual and triangular meets throughout the regular season and then went on to win both the district crown and the South Suburban Conference championship. The cindermen collected five points in the state meet at Champaign. Victories in dual and triangular meets were won over Bloom, Thornton, Argo, Kankakee, Lockport and Fractional.

Outstanding performances were turned in by Willie May, who won both high and low hurdles in district and conference meets and also placed fourth in the highs at the state meet. Ron Helberg was undefeated during the regular season in the quarter mile, took second in the district and first in the conference. Robert Re Chord won both the 100- and 220-yard dashes in the conference and placed second in the district. Others who contributed greatly to the success of the team were Corwin Hutchison and Jesse Lucious in the sprints, Paul Fuller and Don Dahlke in the distance races, Robert Carlson in the shot put and discus, and Dave Markle in the high jump.

1954 TRACK SEASON

VARSITY TRACK

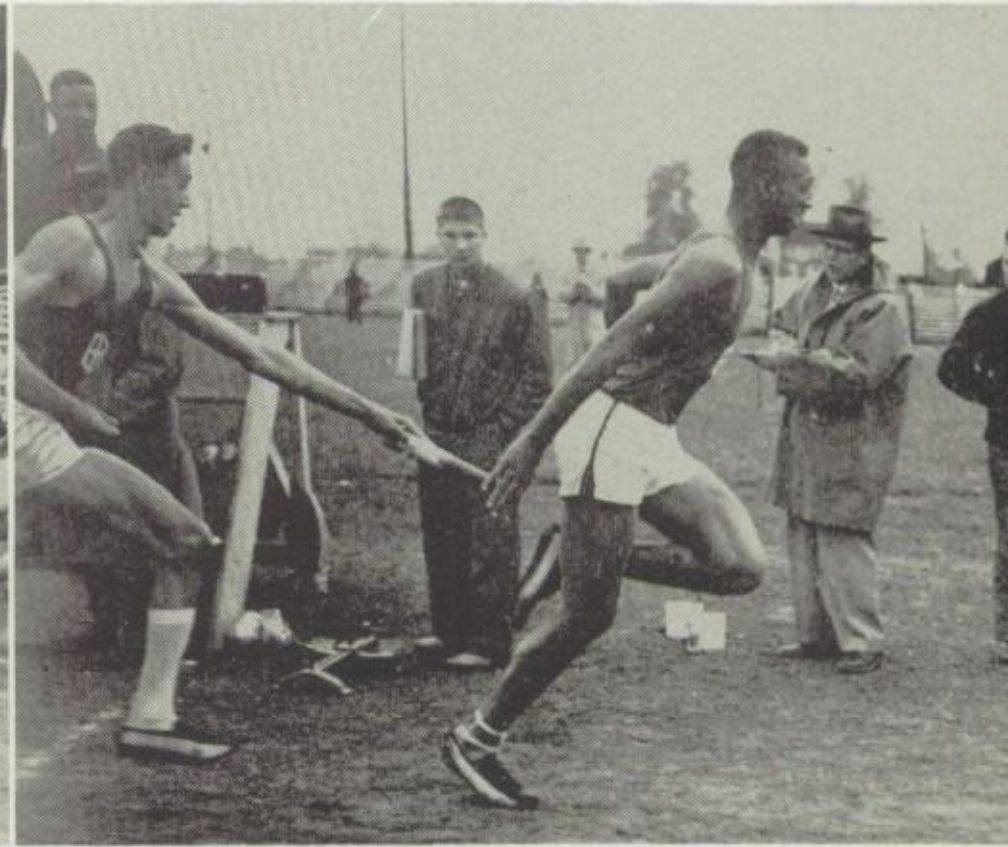

Five new school records were established by Willie May both in high and low hurdles, by Ron Helberg in the quarter mile, and by both relay teams. The half-mile relay team, which consisted of Jesse Lucious, Robert Re Chord, Willie May and Corwin Hutchison, took fourth at the state meet. Carl Farmer, Paul Fuller, Corwin Hutchison and Ron Helberg, who comprised the mile relay team, won fifth at the state meet.

1954 BASEBALL SEASON

Blue Island's fighting Cardinals shared the co-championship of the South Suburban Conference with Bloom as both teams had records of ten wins and four losses.

The Cardinals lost the following key players by graduation: Wyman Carey, pitcher-outfielder; George Wojtas, first base; Lester Hill, second base; Robert Lysen, shortstop; Robert Johler, pitcher-outfielder; Gerald Gustavson, outfielder; Wally Massat, catcher; Tony Orfino, third base; Ken Wassberg, catcher; and Roger Overbeek, reserve outfielder.

Coach Harold C. Eberhart turned out two all-state players in 1954: Wyman Carey for his superb pitching and Robert Lysen for his sparkling plays at shortstop. Bob Lysen, recently signed by the New York Yankees, finished third in the batting championship of the conference with an average of .364. Wyman Carey pitched four no-hitters in his last two years of high-school ball. His biggest thrill came, not when he pitched a no-hitter, but when he hit a triple to deep center to bat in a run to help Blue Island defeat Thornton in an extra-inning game at Thornton.

After many successful years of coaching baseball at Community High School, Coach Eberhart relinquished his coaching duties at the close of the season. He will be succeeded as varsity baseball coach next season by Ivan Schultz.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The 1955 Chips Staff wishes to acknowledge with grateful thanks the splendid cooperation and assistance of the following people who contributed materially in the work of publishing THE 1955 CHIPS . . .

To Norman Koenig and his associates of The Norman King Co., Inc., of Berwyn, for providing covers, engraving, printing, layout and art, together with helpful suggestions in organization . . .

To John Roche, Aura R. Samels and their associates of Root Photographer, of Chicago, the official school photographer, who took most of the pictures which appear in THE 1955 CHIPS . . .

To Clyde Wilbur Blanke, former faculty sponsor of the Chips Staff, who gave freely of his time and experience whenever called upon to do so . . .

To Nelson Kias, faculty sponsor responsible for the financial aspects of publishing THE 1955 CHIPS, who did his work well . . .

To Richard E. Anoe, faculty sponsor of the Camera Club, who took some of the pictures used in THE 1955 CHIPS when it was impossible to arrange a full schedule for the regular photographer . . .

To the faculty and administrative assistants, who provided copy and identifications . . .

To Dr. Harold L. Richards, superintendent, for his sympathetic understanding and encouragement when the going seemed unusually rough and the way seemed particularly steep . . .
